

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

October 11, 2006

The BSWC on “The Sharon Osbourne Show” on ITV1

The British Second Wives Club was featured on ITV1 ‘The Sharon Osbourne Show’, TX Tuesday 10th October 2005, at 17:00. Linda Robertson, The Founder of The British Second Wives Club was interviewed by Sharon Osbourne.

The British Second Wives Club has received a huge amount of Media coverage since its launch in March 2005, including many radio, newspaper and magazines interviews. The appearance on The Sharon Osbourne Show was the first national television appearance for The British Second Wives Club.

Linda Robertson, the founder of The British Second Wives Club said:

“I would like to thank Sharon for inviting myself onto her show. Sharon is a second wife and stepmother herself and so I know she can appreciate some of the issues second wives have to face. It is wonderful second wives in Britain are now receiving some recognition for the day to day issues they have to face”.

The show was transmitted on Tuesday 10th October 2006 at 17:00 on ITV1. Linda said:

“It was a thoroughly enjoyable day and Sharon was very nice. I hope to appear on more national television programs in the near future to raise the profile of the Second Wife in Britain today.”

<http://www.thebritishsecondwivesclub.co.uk>

Notes to Editors:

The British Second Wives Club offers help, advice & friendship on-line and through group meetings to any lady in The UK who is having problems with their partner’s ex, step children or other issues such as harassment, child contact & financial issues, CSA & CAFCASS assessments, the legal system & Court orders.